Do Not Take From This Room

An aerial photograph of the Andover High School campus. The main building is a long, two-story structure with a flat roof and many windows. To its left is a smaller, single-story building. In the foreground, there is a large, paved parking lot with many spaces. The background is filled with dense trees and some smaller buildings on a hill.

Dear Levine,
Of all the people I know,

DEDICATION

Mr. Richard Collins

We, the class of 1965, take deep pride in dedicating our issue of the Andanno to Mr. Richard Collins. We feel indebted to him as our history teacher and our football coach. School spirit and inspiration have reigned throughout our high school days due to the sincere efforts and continuous achievements of Mr. Collins. His ability to arouse and maintain our interest has caused increased understanding and determination.

As a class, we hold him in the highest esteem and express our desire that others, in future years, may have the opportunity to experience the warmth and compassion shown to us by Mr. Collins.

Stephen McBride

IN MEMORIAM

Stephen McBride died in the spring of our sophomore year after a long but courageously borne illness. We shall not forget his sharp sense of humor, his keen intellect, his respect and concern for others. His death caused us to better comprehend the vulnerability of man and the brevity of his existence.

Although Stephen did not survive to graduate with us, we consider him a part of our class, a part of our lives.

"THE DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES"

Who could have asked for a more lovely evening than May 15, 1964, the day of our Junior Prom? Throughout the day everyone rushed about to be ready for the magic hour of 8 o'clock. Cars flowed into the parking lot of Hillview Country Club and high school students, magically transformed into elegant ladies and gentlemen, made their way into the ballroom decorated to the theme of "The Days of Wine and Roses", where an evening of dancing was followed by unforgettable moments around the huge pool. An excellent dinner completed an evening filled with pleasant memories for many years to come.

The Mosaic, under the editorship of Nedra Sanfilippo, has made many changes. There are a greater number of issues and a greater number of pages. Some new columns are "Letters to the Editor" "Student Council Members of the Month" and "The Surveyor." There has been a marked improvement in editorials, sports news, and special features. Let us hope that our school newspaper continues to be as interesting and informative as it has been this year.

One of the highest honors that is bestowed upon a high school student is acceptance into the National Honor Society for it means one has excelled in the four fundamentals upon which the society is based: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Although the Honor Society is less active than most other clubs it does sponsor some fund raising projects and faithfully offers a scholarship of one hundred dollars every year to a deserving student.

FOOTBALL

GOLDEN WARRIORS "64"

The Andover High Golden Warrior Football team of 1964 ended the season with a very impressive 6-3 record. Hopes for the Northeastern Conference title were diminished somewhat by a loss to Amsbury High 14-12. Not only did the Warriors lose the game, but they lost their co-captain Dave Bennett due to a fractured ankle sustained in that game.

On a soaking field A.H.S. beat a strong Woburn team 12-0. The Warriors knocked off Danvers 12-0. Newburyport went down to defeat 28-20, and Andover beat Methuen 24-12.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Warriors charged over to North Andover. Coach Collins kept his record clean for never losing a Little 3 Championship. The team went on to defeat the Knights 24-13 and thus cap another Little 3 title for A.H.S.

Mr. Collins along with Mr. Vickers, Mr. Dorsey, Mr. Bissett, and Mr. Hixon should be commended for their outstanding work in producing one of the best records A.H.S. has ever had on the football field.

NORTHEAST CONFERENCE CHAMPS

Coach Hixon and his basketball team wrapped up the Conference Title and qualified for another Tech Tournament berth at the Boston Garden in 1965.

One of the most consistent players was Al O'Reilley, the team captain. Mike Noonan, Tom Hopkins, Tom Majerison, and Larry Brucato, all juniors, saw considerable duty. These boys and the other members of the club helped the Warriors to go on to win the Northeast Conference Title.

GYM TEAM

Led by co-captains Ben Ardizzonne and Ray Dery the gymnasts of Andover High continue to be one of the dominating teams in Massachusetts Gymnastics.

There was a period of sadness this past year. Braintree High broke the boys' consecutive winning streak. Our boys lost 139-135. Credit should be bestowed upon Mr. Dorsey for establishing such a commendable record. He realizes it will be a big job next year to fill the gap left by the seniors, but he has good potential in the underclassmen, and he expects to carry on the successful tradition of Andover High's Gym Team.

WINTER TRACK

The Winter Track season of 1964-1965 has been a highly successful one for Coach Collins and the trackmen of Andover High. Our team finished a close second to Randolph in the State Meet in Boston and Coach Collins is very proud of their showing. Three of the boys qualified for the Nationals held every year in New York.

Many school records were broken this past season as Rollie Heroux bettered the mark in the 1000 lowering it to 2:18:08. Another standout was Bob Petrie who lowered the 600 to a time of 1:17. Junior Ed Huot continued to better the shot put mark with a toss of 54' 9".

CROSS COUNTRY

The only rewards a cross-country runner gets are tired legs and bursting lungs. It takes lots of stamina and courage to participate in cross-country, and good runners are few and far between.

Led by co-captain Tucker Lake and Pete Shearston, the team compiled a record of 4 wins and 3 losses.

Larry Robins, Joe Sweeney, and Mike McEneaney were the other seniors on the team which saw fine showings from Garry Brown and Al West, both juniors. Thanks for a fine coaching job goes to Mr. Dorsey.

GIRLS' GYM TEAM

SENIOR MEMBERS

Front row: Judy Henderson, Jolene Levi
Back row: Pam Burnham, Sharon Mullen

The Girls' Gym Team is only in its first year, but members are trying to make this year a successful one. The first meet was against Framingham and Andover triumphed with a score of 49-47. The second meet, against Minnechaug, was exciting and close, but Minnechaug pushed ahead to win 49-47. February 9th was the first away meet at Norwood. Andover secured a lead and maintained it to win 65-31.

The girls are proud to have Mrs. Fairfield as coach. She has taught them not only gymnastic stunts, but also how to walk properly. They are also very thankful for all the help and encouragement Mr. Fairfield has given.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year the Girls' Varsity Basketball team suffered several losses. The only victory was against Lawrence 40-15. One lesson that experience taught the girls is they should play to win rather than playing for enjoyment.

The junior varsity team was slightly more successful. They won games at both Lawrence and North Andover. The team members, all sophomores, show great prospects for the future because of the past year of experience.

With this year's experience accompanied by the excellent coaching of Miss Tribou, the teams look forward to better times in league competition.

FIELD HOCKEY

Third row: M. Anderson, R. MacDougall. Second row: P. Porter, K. Guy, C. Urquhart, D. Pepin. First row: J. Gillan, S. West, L. White, E. McCarthy, G. Currier. Kneeling: P. Burnham, Captain.

This is the last year Field Hockey will be intramural at Andover High. Next year it will become a varsity sport. Unfortunately, the team suffered an unsuccessful season. Our girls were defeated 5-1 at North Reading and twice at North Andover; the first game 5-1, and the second 3-2. However, the girls have gained much experience and are anticipating a good season next year.

Lorraine, Go a real sweet girl with personality plus. Never forget that french class and the hard line we gave poor Mr. Mac. You are also one of the former Ballard Vale girls (the better part of Andover)
 Never change Lorraine!
 you'll have great success
 in future years.
 Always,
 Martha

STUDENT LIFE

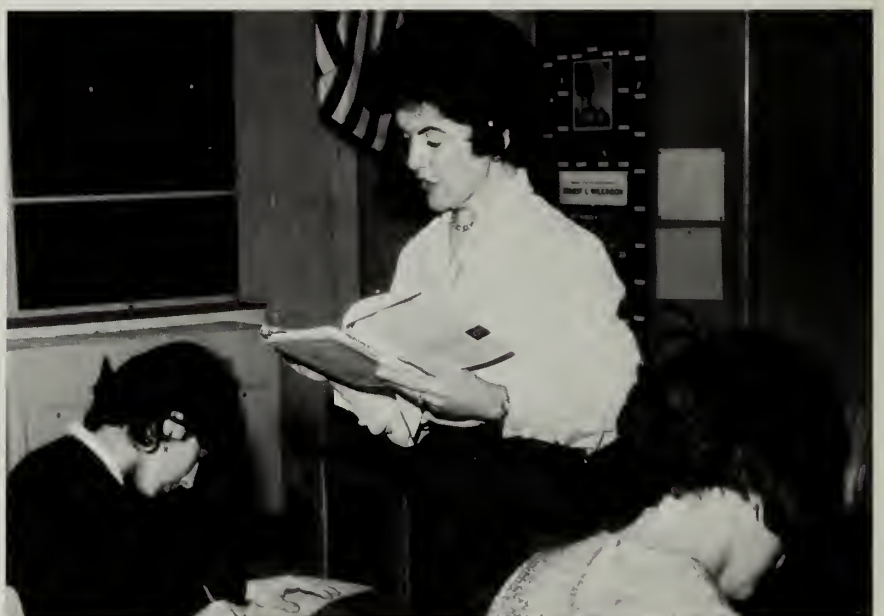

"Sorry, visiting hours still 2-4."

"You're putting me on!"

"I'll eat it, but I won't like it."

"And as the good fairy waved her wand . . ."

"Welcome to the 5th period Cake Baking Class."

"You wanna bet?"

"Say the magic word and you'll win a two-week vacation!!"

"I think that was totally uncalled for!"

"Keep it up and we'll be on Ted Mack."

"Boy is that floor cold!"

"You see, I can't swing your parole just now."

"In my spare time I'm only a mail sorter."

"We're only boys in a gilded cage."

"If they knew about this still. . ."

"Dave, I don't mind double lunches, but not all 3 periods!"

"Guess who got a 'D'?"

"Well, Mr. Novak is WRONG!"

"It's a worm!"

"The winner gets a banana."

"It must've been something I ate."

"Section 4, Article 3 . . . Any citizen has the right to squash a zombie."

"Help! I lost my contacts."

"So what if we do use greasy kid stuff?"

"Is that mother calling?"

"Look at THOSE cheerleaders!"

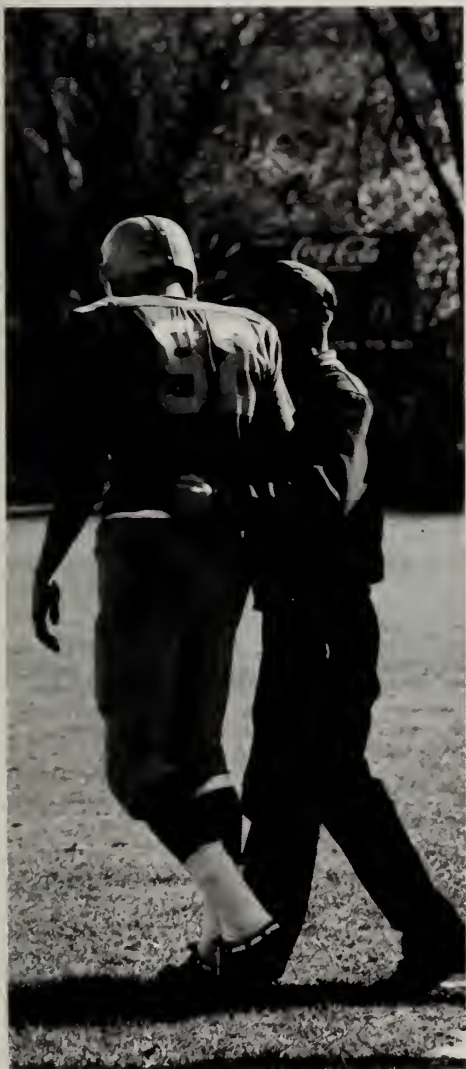

"Say, there's a scout from the Rockettes in the crowd."

"A . . . Louie, Louie, yea, yeah."

"Mother said there'd be days like this. . ."

"Who told you I said to kick on the first down?"

"I hope to make the L.A. Rams."

"Please dear, not now!!!"

"The Mafia."

"Stick 'em up!"

"Now, if you'd rather go to Yale. . . ."

"Now play your ace."

"Ah, you'll never get this one."

"Simon says, 'Put your hands in your pocket.'"

"Mr. Dunn, you're such a scream!!"

"But these are my Major Mudd tickets."

"I won the twin double at the Rock."

"Well, you all flunked!"

"Have one. They're good!!"

"It's an inker."

"The leader of the pack."

"Hey, he went that way!"

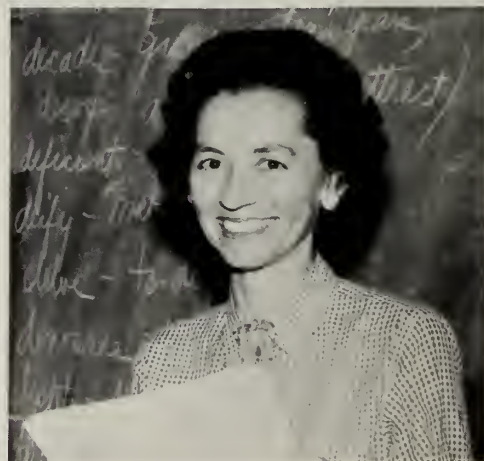

"I'd rather switch than fight."

"Wish I may, wish I might..."

"What's after P-Q-R-S?"

"We're going to read Arundel again."

"And for our next number . . ."

"Watch out, here comes Capone."

"... and we will save $48,386 by decreasing the size of corridors."

"Run Dick. Run Jane. Run Dick and Jane."

"The name's Hixon! Not Nixon!!"
